Good research starts with a good plan.

That means that I need to understand my project, think about what I already know, come up with some questions that I want to answer, and find good resources.

To learn more about the Plan step of research, check out the links in the Learn to box. Each Learn to link has its own Resources box with eBooks, tutorials, and more.

OSLIS.

Learn to Research.

Research to Learn.